

Nebraska Dyslexia Association

Fall Celebration

Saturday, October 28, 2017

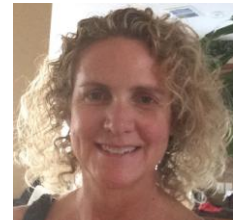

9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

St. Mark's Methodist Church
84th & Pioneers, Lincoln, NE

Keynote:

“Striving for Student Success:
How and Why Orton-Gillingham based Multisensory
Language Teaching Methods can work for children with dyslexia and reading difficulties.”

“It’s not just about the program, but instead the key components of instruction necessary to master the complex skills needed to read.” Pam will focus on why the components of Orton-Gillingham based reading instruction are effective in learning to read based on research and theory into reading instruction and how the brain processes information in relationship to dyslexia.

Pam Bazis
M.Ed. C.A. L.T., Q.I.
UNL Reading Center
Graduate Assistant
Doctoral Student

Journeys With Dyslexia

Steve Bowles

Austyn Becker – 12th Grade

Recognition of Achievement

Senator Patty Pansing-Brooks

Eileen Vautravers, M.D.

ALL are invited to join us for this special event!

No registration required! Refreshments!

Teachers, request Professional Development credit from your school.

For more information, contact the Nebraska Dyslexia Association.

www.ne-da.org or 402.434.6434

The Nebraska Dyslexia Association is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization.