

The Neuroimaging for Language, Literacy and Learning (NL3) at UNL is conducting a research study using brain imaging techniques to understand the speech-evoked brain activity in individuals who have cochlear implant (s).

Research Participants Wanted!

- ✓ One group: Children who have cochlear implant (s)
- ✓ Control group: Children who have normal hearing
- ✓ age 5 -15 years
- ✓ no history of neurological or psychological disorders
- ✓ Come to help us to understand the speech-evoked brain activity
- ✓ Interested?
- ✓ Email us at nl3wanglab@gmail.com
- ✓ Or Call us at 402-472-3953
- ✓ You will get compensated $60 cash for the visit
- ✓ Your child will get a lab T-shirt for the visit

www.thewanglab.com